April: lambing - Lamb of God?

In 1960 (so, well over sixty years ago), I was a boy at St Cuthbert's Grammar School, Newcastle. One piece of music we learned was the ballad "All in the April Evening". Set to music by Sir High Robertson, it was a well-known part of the Glasgow Orpheus Choir repertoire. I must have been a 'pious bairn', as I found it quite moving: "All in the April evening, April airs were abroad. The sheep with their little lambs passed me by on the road. All in the April evening....I thought of the Lamb of God." (I'm sure some other 'oldies' will remember it!)

As I type this, it's very chilly. (Your editor wants this piece in by mid-March, hence this early writing.) We'll soon have the Easter weekend influx of visitors here in Bellingham, but just now there are few people on holiday. For 11 years, I was parish priest in Consett, where, at nearly 900 feet up, 'lambing snow' was a regular event. Everyone loves the sight of the mother-ewes with their lambs in the fields, but town people often don't appreciate the worry and tension involved when cold, wet weather arrives – as often happens in hilly country in the north-east.

This year, worry and tension are part of everyone's life, thanks to the cost-of-living problem and the drawn-out effects of Covid-19. But for Christians, the sufferings of Jesus Christ are also part of the April experience. He was the "Lamb of God, who took away the sins of the world", as John the Baptist introduced him. The Jews had used roasted, sacrificial lamb as part of their Passover, and for Christians, Jesus' death on the cross was a sacrifice of love that reconciles us to God and to each other.

As adults of any religion - or none - I don't think we can escape all problems and suffering. (I wish some politicians would stop pretending that we can.) For me, shouldering burdens - our own and others' - is part of being grown-up. The difference Christianity makes is that, for believers, God came to share all this in the person of Jesus. He didn't 'magic' suffering away, but offered us a path through it. Just as better weather should have arrived by the time you read this, so the rising of Jesus from the dead can offer us hope for something better. Happy Spring-time!

Fr Jim Dunne, St Oswald's RC Church, Bellingham

HUMSHAUGH NOTES

What a wonderful, brilliant play was performed by the Crown Players! Not only the actors were so good, but the technical part was so very well done. And we are all rather proud of Diana Linnett!

The Coffee Mornings, from 10-12, will be on April 1st in aid of Humshaugh Cricket Club and on May 13th in aid of North Tyne Voices.

To celebrate the Coronation on Saturday, May the 6th, the event will be screened live in the Village Hall on the large film screen. All are welcome – bring along your own refreshments and enjoy sharing this historic event with others. No booking required – just turn up!
Watch out for details about times nearer the event.

Jamie and Simone visited the Humshaugh First School to deliver salmon eggs and gave a very interesting talk about Atlantic Salmon. The children are very excited about looking after the eggs until they are ready to be released. Each day, two children are completing a chart, including taking the temperature and making observations.

The February Quiz, in aid of the Cricket Club, was won in a very close contest by “They think It’s Wall Over” with a distinguished score of 57.5 out of 60! An excellent £250 was raised.
The April Quiz will be on Tuesday, April the 18th in aid of St. Peter’s Church.

Love, Liesbeth

GOOD FRIDAY WALK APRIL 7th

This contemplative walk starts on Wark village green at 10.00am and follows the well known ‘Station Walk’ taking about 40 minutes to 1 hr. It includes a fairly steep hill but is all on tarmac. Come and join us. Everyone is welcome.

Returning to Wark Town Hall for hot cross buns and coffee.

Please give generously when an envelope comes through your door in Wark. Your gifts can help pigeon pea farmers in Malawi to change their own lives. Enabling families to educate their children and secure a better future.

Look out for the date for the Big Brekkie at Wark School.

WARK PARISH NEWS

It may be too early to say; It's Spring! after the recent weather but, surely, it cannot be far off? – we hope. Living in the country I'm sure we all will have heard of 'the lambing storm' Could that have, been it?

We now look towards Easter bringing the end to the colourless and penitence period of Lent. Colour is returning to our gardens and the fields around so an ideal time to join us in St. Michael's for Easter Day Holy Communion (9th April) at 8.30am continuing on to Easter Breakfast. Butties, tea etc. and good company. A perfect celebration. On Good Friday, 7th April, setting off at 10.00am from Wark War Memorial is a Walk of Witness. Please join at 10 and the walk takes about an hour and finishes with coffee etc in The Town Hall.

The close working relationship with St. Michael's and MURC continues and is being exemplified to many as the way forward. Well done to all involved. Wark is shining a light.

Over the last couple of months, we've had happiness in the baptisms of Louie Martin John and Rosie, both grandchildren of Wark people, in fact one I think will be a great grandson? we welcome them to St. Michael's. Milestone birthdays have been celebrated and sadness has passed through some families of Wark residents current and past with the death of loved ones. Blessings to all of them.

After all the eggs, be they chocolate or whatever, we settle down for a period before the dreaded word Garden Fete is mentioned! You've been warned – be prepared. The annual meetings of St. Michael's were held on 22nd March so before printing deadline for this issue but as many have discovered 'word of mouth' tells a lot (how did Jesus let us know?) more and safer than 'social media' so you'll soon find out by the local gossip what is coming up in the year ahead.

Until we chat again,

Love to all, John

Simonburn Notes

At St.Mungo's PCC meeting, we welcomed Judith Lowes as the newest member of the PCC. Judith's association with St. Mungo's and Simonburn goes back over three generations. Her mother Joan Benson, her grandmother Emma Ballentyne, who lived to the grand age of 103 and also her uncle Billy Ballentyne. They were all very much involved with village life.

For Easter this year, there won't be traditional flowers in church. If you would like to place an arrangement or a vase of flowers in church, you are very welcome to do so, after Good Friday.

Don't forget the Village Hall Bacon butties on the first Tuesday of each month and a Licensed bar and social evening on the third Saturday of the month. See you there!

West Northumberland Foodbank

St.Mungo's Church is now a West Northumberland Foodbank donation point. If you can, please donate an item or two, on the list provided every fortnight. Your support is very much appreciated. See our community box, just inside the Lych gate. Thank You.

Simonburn Parish Council

The Clerk to Simonburn Parish Council is to retire in May. If anyone is interested in taking on this paid role, please contact Mrs Jane Lamb 01434 681363 or anyone on the Parish Council.

Have a lovely Easter everyone.
Love Sharon

Bingfield, Wall and Heavenfield notes

Well spring is definitely arriving with the garden beginning to erupt with plants we forgot we had and so many weeds. Just hope snow and very hard frosts stay away as we and many others begin lambing at the start of April and young shoots are easily damaged in our gardens.

Social media has been inundated with photos of the murmuration at Wall. Amazing to see but hard to live with for the villagers having cars, gardens windows and pathways covered in droppings. I just hope that the trees which the birds roost in do not get killed off by the acid.

Please note that there will not be a service at Bingfield on 2nd April as it will be replaced by a service at St. Georges' preceding the APCM which then takes place in the village hall.

We again have competitions primarily for young people on Easter Saturday (8th April) in St. Georges. All welcome to enter— see back page of broadsheet.

St Christophers' at Gunnerton did a lovely job of hosting the World Day of Prayer followed by refreshment and chat— thank you to all involved.

Blessings Helen

Birtley Notes

Even with this cold snap we've had, it's so nice to see the daffodil's waving their cheery heads at us.

Village folk were sorry to hear that Margaret Mitcheson had died mid February age 84yrs, after an illness. She was involved in local activities, especially St Giles, from when her and her sister Anne came to live in the village over 20 years ago, she also loved her garden.

Jason Milburn had a trip to Wembley in February to see Newcastle United play, unfortunately not successfully, but he enjoyed being there.

A good evening was had in early March when the Village Hall held their annual quiz evening. 1st 'And the winners are' which was Sally Dannys and her friends from Gunnerton. 2nd 'Tilly's Table' Andrew Tilly and family, and 3rd 'Team Thomas' Liz Coulson and family. Some obscure questions from question master Patty, had folk thinking hard.

It won't be long before we see lambs running about in the fields, telling us that Spring is here.

Regards Mary.

MARCH

Lent is coming to its close,
It's been a long long time.
Every day without some wine,
Sipping all that lime..
Bring the storms of April on
Ending days of Lent,
Then I can have fun once more,
Have hours of deep content.

Lovely is the month of March,
All is new and young,
Nesting birds and skipping lambs
Gambling fast among
Flowers pink and flowers blue...
O, this is wearing thin,
Reach the end of March, so that
Dear April can come in!
